The MS550 mini-ITX.case is ideal for your home theater. A classic design seamlessly blends into your multimedia setup. Due to its compact size MS550 is very space saving. Made of metal and aluminum, the casing keeps conducting and dissipating heat away.

You can easily install ITX compatible mainboards. An external power supply unit with high efficiency and outstanding performance is included to be connected to the internal ATX power board. The ATX power board, kept up to future-proof standards of the ATX specification version 2.2, has P4 as well as 24-pin connectors.
